N.Tsogtbayar: The Govi-Altai Province Prosecutor's Office Is Working with Attention to Protecting Public Interests

We spoke with N.Tsogtbayar, Chief Prosecutor of the Govi-Altai Province Prosecutor's Office, about the incidence and resolution of crimes and infringements in Govi-Altai Province and the work being done to protect state and public interests.

What is the incidence, resolution, and overall situation of infringements committed in Govi-Altai Province?

In 2024, 2773 complaints and reports of infringements were registered in Govi-Altai Province, an increase of 22.2 percent over the previous year. The most frequently committed are violations of the Law on Road Traffic Safety and infringements against public order and safety. Of the citizens involved in infringements, 54.8 percent committed them while under the influence of alcohol.

Of the MNT 180 million in damage caused to others by infringement cases, the damage was fully compensated at the infringement inquiry stage and the violated rights of individuals were restored. In addition, 1243 prosecutorial opinions were written to annul or amend unfounded penalty decisions issued by authorized officials and were considered by the courts, with 100 percent fulfillment. In connection with the courts' annulment of fines imposed by authorized officials, work is being organized to refund, from the relevant State Treasury accounts, the fines paid without grounds by citizens.

What is the crime situation in Govi-Altai Province? Which crimes are most prevalent?

In 2024, the province's Prosecutor's Office supervised a total of 651 complaints and reports with signs of crime, an increase of 15.9 percent compared with the same period of the previous year. Of the 302 new crimes registered in 2024, 63 percent were committed in the province center, where the population is most concentrated.
