Prosecution Service Takes Part in Discussion on Preventing Peer Bullying and Cyberbullying

Representatives of the prosecution service took part in a discussion on the topic “Preventing Peer Bullying”, organized in Ulaanbaatar on the initiative of D.Tsogtbaatar, Member of the State Great Khural, in cooperation with the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe Parliamentary Assembly (OSCE PA) and the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF).

The event brought together representatives of state agencies, international organizations and the education sector, as well as 150 students, who exchanged views on measures to be taken to address peer bullying and ensure online safety.

On this occasion, E.Munkhbold, supervising prosecutor of the Sukhbaatar District Prosecutor's Office, briefed participants on the work and measures being undertaken to prevent peer bullying and cyberbullying.

During the discussion, students shared their views and experiences and presented their proposals and recommendations on making the school environment and the online environment safer and more child-friendly, while participants emphasized the importance of inter-agency cooperation and the involvement of children, parents, teachers and the public in protecting the rights and legitimate interests of children and preventing peer bullying and cyberbullying.
