Corruption Case Resolved in Court

This information is intended to prevent crime and to inform the public in an accessible manner about crimes set forth in the Criminal Code and the resolution of cases.

As of November 6, 2026, the prosecution service had issued indictments in 286 cases involving 603 persons charged as accused with corruption crimes under Chapter 22 of the Criminal Code.

Over the past week, 3 cases involving 4 persons, in which the Capital City Prosecutor's Office had issued indictments and transferred the cases to court, were resolved by courts of first instance.

Specifically, the courts found these 4 persons guilty of corruption crimes, deprived them of the right to hold public office for 2 years, and imposed sentences of restriction of freedom of movement for 1 year, imprisonment for 2 years, and fines of 2.7 million to 6 million MNT, respectively.

A summary of a case resolved in court over the past week:

While working as the authorised representative of “M...” LLC, “Z...” LLC, , and “M...” LLC, N.T, in order to have customs inspections carried out on a total of 17 customs declarations for goods cleared at the Zamiin-Uud Customs Office under the General Customs Administration as if there were no violations, and for the purpose of creating an advantage, gave a bribe of 19.5 million MNT on January 15 and 16, 2026 through another person's account at a commercial bank to G.B, Senior State Customs Inspector of the Zamiin-Uud Customs Office under the General Customs Administration. The prosecutor qualified this act under Article 22.5, paragraph 1 of the Criminal Code (giving a bribe), issued an indictment and transferred the case to court.

> The court found N.T guilty of the crime of giving a bribe, deprived him of the right to hold public office for 2 years and imposed a fine of 6 million MNT.
